

Wear Blue for Ollie

As parents, we hope to see our children grow to be strong, independent and healthy, but sometimes the journey is a struggle.

One of our own is on that journey. Oliver Fettkether, a junior at Dunkerton Community School is fighting the battle against non-Hodgkin's lymphoma. He is the son of Joe and Lisa Fettkether, brother to Clayton, Kacey, Lily, Daisy, Maverick and Kasyl.

Oliver was diagnosed earlier this school year and has begun chemotherapy treatments. He is a member of the Dunkerton basketball and football teams as well as the National Honor Society and Student Senate.

Posters on Facebook sum up how Oliver is seen around school, "Come Out To Support The Strongest," which says a lot about Oliver. He is the strongest teammate, friend, athlete, brother and son in our eyes.

Please help support this young gentleman on Tuesday, January 18th at Dunkerton Community School when the Dunkerton Raiders take on the Tripoli Panthers.

A free-will meal of pulled pork, baked beans, chips and dessert will be served beginning at 5:00 p.m. in the Commons. "Ollie Strong" bracelets will be available for purchase for $2.00 and all are asked to wear blue to show your support for this outstanding student.

Games will begin at 4:00 p.m. in the high school gym with the JV girls, followed by JV boys, Varsity girls and Varsity boys. JH girls will take on Clarksville in the JH gym.

We look forward to seeing you! Go Raiders!!

Quilting for Sewers, Sign-up deadline: Sat., Jan. 15

Paula Winkers and Lynn Pipho are teaching a Beginning to Quilt Class at the library on Sat., Jan. 22, from 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM. If you're a sewer who's always wanted to learn how to quilt, sign up! The registration deadline is Sat., Jan. 15.

There is a $30 class fee that's due when signing up. A basic knowledge of sewing and your sewing machine is necessary. A class list of materials needed is available on the website and at the library.

January Craft Packs

There are new craft packs at the library! Stop by to pick up a winter themed craft pack in the library's lobby (while supplies last).

January Book Club discussion: Jan. 20 and 21

Join us at 6:30 PM on Jan. 20 or 2:15 PM on Jan. 21 when we will be discussing the New York Times best seller, Wintering by Katherine May. Sometimes you slip through the cracks: unforeseen circumstances like an abrupt illness, the death of a loved one, a break up, or a job loss can derail a life. These periods of dislocation can be lonely and unexpected. For Katherine May, her husband fell ill, her son stopped attending school, and her own medical issues led her to leave a demanding job. Wintering explores how she not only endured this painful time, but embraced the singular opportunities it offered. Sign up and pick up a copy at the library.

Join Us For Coffee Fridays, 9:00 AM - 2:00 PM

Come in from the cold and enjoy a warm cup of coffee, cider, or hot cocoa on Fridays at the library. It's a great time to catch up with friends or relax with a book or magazine. We open at 9:00 instead of our usual 10:00 AM.

Story Time, Wed. Jan. 12 & 26 at 9:30

Enjoy fun winter stories and crafts with Miss Miranda! We have story time each 2nd and 4th Wed. through May.

Valentine's Card Making, Sat., Feb. 5, 9:00 AM

Do you prefer hand-made cards? If so, plan on joining us at 9:00 AM on Feb. 5, to make a Valentine card to give to someone you love. Sign up by Wed., Feb. 2. Children under 10 must be accompanied by an adult.

Valentine's Cookie Decorating, Sat., Feb. 12, 10:30 AM

We had so much fun decorating Christmas Cupcakes that Jessica Schilling is back to teach us how to decorate Valentine's cookies! Sign up by Wed., Feb. 9 to participate. Children under 10 must be accompanied by an adult.

What's New at the Library
